Following the success of his current Autumn tour, Irish Country-Pop crossover star Nathan Carter announces his Born For The Road 2019 tour.

The 20-date tour starting in Harlow on January 24th runs through to April 14th in Motherwell; the run also includes a date at the London Palladium on March 17th.

Without a doubt, he is fast becoming one of the UK's most prolific touring artists, with his energetic showmanship proving irresistible for fans across the UK.

As one of Ireland's biggest live music acts, Nathan is becoming a household name, with tracks from "Stayin' Up All Night" becoming hits, such as "Wagon Wheel" and "I Wanna Dance".

He's previously beaten the likes of Drake and Beyonce to the top of the charts in Ireland, a monumental feat – with his last album, 2017's 'Livin' The Dream' being no different, going straight to No. 1.

Growing up in a house where Country and Western music filled the air, Nathan was exposed to classic songs of Johnny Cash, Don Williams and Dolly Parton. From the tender age of 4 years old, not only learning to play guitar, piano and accordion, which plays a vital part in his live show, Nathan quickly became head chorister in the Liverpool Boys choir where he toured the world and even performed in front of the Pope in Rome.
